Title:

Dreaming Night

Artist:

Clean Tears & Rika Hisui ft. Lapis Aoki

Lyrics:

A jewel which is only mine that twinklingly sparkles

Shut in both hands because I will keep it secret

I finally ran across my proof I'm alive

You have become my place to return to[...][...]Yes! Definitely

The moon grows bright / Even the night is giving its blessing

Having begun to move from deep inside (my) chest, the feelings that dance are what?

Everything is a first, happy things, fun things

I count my fingers and fall asleep[...][...]until the day I can go to meet you

"Yume Miru Yoru" - Clean Tears & HISUIRIKA ft. Aoki Lapis

A fluffy, light caramel colored sweet[...]

[...]I put in my mouth and it melts, right, with a sweet smile

Us two who were separated's distance is unbearably painful

I can't go back alone to a room without light[...][...]So please

The moon grows round / Even the night is going to further grow deeper

I simply can't live here / That kind of existence[...]

I want (you) to be by (me) / If I obtain (you), I can not let (you) get away

It's not monochrome that had turned color / A world you are in

A turn of fate that had shut in (my) heart

I kept thinking I lost the locked key[...]

[...]The words of that person who is like God[...]

[...]knocked on my door and thrust in

The moon is casting light / Even the night is silently watching over

(You) cast a good luck charm for me / An incantation that became happiness

"Yume Miru Yoru" - Clean Tears & HISUIRIKA ft. Aoki Lapis

The moon grows light / Even the night is giving its blessing

Having begun to move from deep inside (my) chest, the feelings that dance are what?

The moon grows round / Even the night is going to further grow deeper

I simply can't live without you here, too / That kind of existence (Meaning "Being unable to live without you is how I'm living now")

Because I can be near (you), I'm not alone / (It's) okay!

It's not monochrome that had turned color / Just the two of us's world

Turn around and around and dance!

Turn around and around and (it) comes true!
